DATE : 31.8.2004.

P.C.:
1. Heard Mr.Rao for the petitioner, Mr.Thakur (APP) for the State and Mr.Ingawale for Respondent No.2. Petitioner is aggrieved by the process being issued by the learned Magistrate on 1.8.2003 on the complaint filed by Respondent No.2. Petitioner is praying that he should not be asked to furnish the security or bail for appearance in the case. The submission is made that the petitioner is a developer of some property and the purchasers of flats have some grievances. It is submitted that some understanding has already been arrived at between the purchasers and the developer but that is the matter with respect to merits of the dispute between the parties. As of now, Respondent No.2 is not happy with respect to the action taken by the petitioner and therefore he has filed a complaint. Law must take its own course. There is no reason to interfere. Petition stands dismissed.
